A Message From the Your President!

Our Annual show is over and I am pleased to say I believe it was a real success. Despite cramped quarters for the dealers, the majority of them said it was a good show. Thank you so much to Marv Rothmeyer, Darrin Speed, Beth Frederick, Dennis Emme, Gene and Dorothy Bright, and Rosie Kern, the Cedar Falls and Waterloo Coin Clubs for the work they did to make the show a success.

Rosie took ill and went into the hospital the night before the show and was not able to attend. A card was passed around and signed at the auction and breakfast for her. It is my understanding, that she was able to return home on Saturday morning, but was not able to out and about.

Highlights of the show were the drawings for door prizes, and the young numismatist table in the lobby, which attracted both young and old alike. Our INA Historian, Tom Robertson, had the INA Scrapbooks on display, and it was fun to look back at previous events. Brian Fanton gave a talk on Coin Collecting and the ANA programs available.

There will be a collector sponsored to attend the summer seminars again this coming summer. Anyone who is a member in good standing of the INA Scholarship in your September issue of The Iowa Collector on page 13, for information.

A design has been selected for our INA medals for 1998, our 60th anniversary year. Anyone wishing a gold medal must pre-order by Jan. 15.

Winners of silver Eagles at the show were:

Saturday: Duane Dostal, Robert Anderson, Craig Utech,
John Frederick (won twice), Barb Eickelberg, Gail McKee

Sunday: Dennis Emme (won twice), Gail Mc Kee,
Brian Fanton, and Jeff Eischen

Winner of the Gold Coin was Bar Eickelberg. Winner of the Afghan (nicknamed the "blanket"; note was Ward Kain of Keokuk.

It is that time again. Anyone desiring to place advertising in the Iowa Collector for 1998 should contact Jo Ann as soon as possible!

Gail L. McKee, President

THANK YOU

I would like to thank all my munisnatic friends for the lovely card and all the signatures and for their concern for my health. You all know how hard it is to keep me down and quiet, but I wanted to be there with you in the worst way. But, I just could not lift my head off the pillow with out being dizzy Doctor sad I had "inner ear infection".

Well, if any of you had that you know it's not fun.

Please accept my apologies for not being there for you to help iron out the little details. I had a very good helper that took over for me. So, I want to thank Beth Frederick and her family. It was greatly appreciated.

Thanks again for your concern and I hope to see you next spring. Mark your calendars. Rosie - May 17, 1998.

Sincerely,

Rosie Kern

FROM THE SECRETARY'S DESK:

Again, the host Clubs (Cedar Falls Waterloo) put on a great show for the INA! The hospitality room was well stocked during the day, the Church Worship Service was well advertised, the Sunday Brunch was good and then the speaker was scheduled so dealers were able to get to their tables before they opened to the public.

We want to thank Rose Kern for all her work, and then she was in the hospital unable to attend. Marvin Rothmeyer and his committee made the show a very good convention.

We are taking ads for the 1998 issues. There will be 4 as it is election year.

Our 60th Anniversary medal will be available for our "Coin A Fans". We are having 100 silver, 300 antique bronze, and gold. If anyone is interested; if we order 10 gold there is a good discount. They are $50 over cost if we don't get 10.

JoAnn Peters, INA
Secretary-Treasurer
